

Contributions from IRNCID-YPF

Translating the publication on “Water for Food, Water for Life” published by International Water Management Institute (IWMI)

The IRNCID - YPF has translated the above mentioned publication into Farsi. This book is now being edited and will be published by the mid 2013.

Preparation of a book entitled “Contemporary Water and Irrigation Practices in Iran”

This book contains 13 different chapters such as introducing Iranian pioneers in various fields of water science, first irrigation and drainage projects carried out in Iran, first organizations and entities established focusing on irrigation and drainage activities, various training events, seminars, and congresses held, research activities, etc.

Preparation of a DVD including water related software and application

The IRNCID - YPF has managed to prepare several CDs and DVDs including related irrigation and drainage software. Every year the WG updates the DVDs and adds complementary software which are widely utilized by the universities, consultant engineering companies and relevant organizations involved in the water industry.

Performance assessment of IRNCID WGs.

Based on the procedure defined by ICID, the Iranian National Committee decided to assess its WGs by preparing questionnaires. These forms have been passed on to all WGs and some have been filled out and sent back. The WG-YPF will proceed analyzing the feedbacks received which will be reported to the Executive Committee of IRNCID. All WGs will be informed on their performance analysis and the weak/ strong points will be discussed to improve performance.
